Editorial Guidelines

- Length of blog: 500 – 800 words; Length of article: 900 – 1100 words

- Topics: Anything related to infertility; examples include but are not limited to: Fertility Diagnosis/Treatment, Donor Egg/Sperm/Embryo, Surrogacy, Adoption, Personal Experiences, Emotional Factors, Coping with Holidays

- Title: Be very specific about your headline - it should be brief (between 50-65 characters), clear, definitive and intriguing.

- Bio: Include short author bio including web link(s) if desired.

- Audience: Our primary audience tends to be families facing fertility and family building challenges as opposed to medical professionals, so we ask that you keep this in mind as you are writing your article. Readable is a free tool that may be helpful when trying to gauge how accessible an article will be to our community.

We reserve the right to make edits, shorten, or choose not to publish as we see fit. We also reserve the right to either republish content to other AllPaths communication vehicles like our website (with your credits included).
