Editorial Guidelines

- Length of piece: Our primary focus is quality over quantity, however submissions anywhere between 500-2,500 words are preferred.
- Topics: Anything related to fertility and family building; examples include but are not limited to: Fertility Diagnosis/Treatment, Donor Egg/Sperm/Embryo, Surrogacy, Adoption, Personal Experiences, Emotional Factors, Coping with Holidays
- Title: Be very specific about your headline - it should be brief (between 50-65 characters), clear, definitive and intriguing.
- Media: Complementary multimedia (graphics, photos, video, and audio) may be included if it enhances the written content.
- Bio: Include short author bio including web link(s) and social media handles if desired.
- Audience: Our primary audience tends to be families facing fertility and family building challenges as opposed to medical professionals, so we ask that you keep this in mind as you are writing your article. Readable is a free tool that may be helpful when trying to gauge how accessible an article will be to our community.

We reserve the right to make edits, shorten, or choose not to publish as we see fit.
