

ALLPATHS FAMILY BUILDING APPOINTS NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CONCORD, Mass. (June 29, 2026) – AllPaths Family Building (formerly Resolve New England) recently announced the appointment of a new Executive Director, Lauren Hart Clancy. AllPaths is a 501(c)3 non-profit that proudly serves the fertility and family building community.

Clancy has spent her career in the hospital and healthcare industry as an operations and client management leader as well as a maternal health and family building advocate. She founded The Village Advocate, a coaching and consulting practice to support individuals navigating fertility, pregnancy, postpartum, and early parenthood. She also co-founded and led the Boston Chapter of the Chamber of Mothers non-profit organization for two years. Clancy first came to AllPaths for support during her own family building journey and then spent several years as a volunteer, leading peer support groups and annual fundraising efforts.

“I am looking forward to this next journey with AllPaths Family Building. Having gone through my own family building challenges, I know how critical it is to have access to the support, resources and advocacy that this organization provides,” said Clancy. “This perspective is what drives me and I am excited to lead this organization into its next phase of growth and impact for all the communities it serves - those facing infertility, the LGBTQ+ community, and others who are trying to build their families.”

As Executive Director at AllPaths Family Building, Clancy is responsible for overseeing the daily administration of the organization by implementing policies, procedures, and programs.

Originally from Maine, Clancy now lives in Westford, MA with her husband, sons, and dog. She is a two-time graduate of Northeastern University, earning her bachelor's degree and Master of Public Health there.

ABOUT ALLPATHS FAMILY BUILDING

AllPaths Family Building is based in Massachusetts and works to ensure that people across New England and beyond have access to the options and community they need to build the family of their dreams. We provide the psychosocial support, resources, and advocacy that are critical to those trying to grow their families.

At AllPaths, we understand very personally the complexities of building your family. These personal connections drive our organization's commitment to providing support, education and advocacy to anyone in our region that is facing these challenges. This is why our mantra is Find Your People.

AllPaths Family Building (formerly Resolve New England) is proud of our long history as a New England-based nonprofit. We also work every day to sustain and continue earning our reputation as a trusted, unbiased leader in our community. More information at www.allpathsfb.org.
